DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

Applicant's arguments with respect to Amended claims 1 and 3-4 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection with the same reference. Therefore, this is Final action.

Applicants have cancelled claims 5-6 in the amendment B filed on 6/25/2003 and cancelled claim 2 on Jan. 14, 2004. Therefore, ONLY claims 1 and 3-4 are still pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

1. Claims 1 and 3-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Okada et al. (EP001083613A2) supplying in IDS.

Okada et al. teach a conductive liquid crystal device comprising:

- a pair of oppositely disposed electrodes 2/5,
- at least two organic layers 3 including
 - a planar liquid crystalline organic layer 3,

○ an organic luminescence layer 4,
disposed between the electrodes, wherein

- the planar liquid crystalline organic layer has plural regions, which are in the same plane and have different electroconductivities, (page 4 lines 52-55) it is possible for providing low performance organic EL device to generate the a planar liquid crystalline organic layer with plural regions, which have different liquid crystal alignment (uniformity of liquid crystal alignment) according claims 3-4.
- the organic luminescence layer emits luminescences by receiving charges supplied by the plural regions of the planar liquid crystalline organic layer having different electroconductivities.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any
